Immense Republican Demonstration.

Grand Meetings at Brady's Bend, Parker's Landing and Lawrenceburg.

Speeches by Judge Shannon, Hon. E. McJunkin, Maj. J. F. Slagle and Others.

Buckalew Stock Flattened Out

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.
BRADY'S BEND, PA., October 5, 1872.

The Republicans of this place and the surrounding townships, gathered in mass meeting yesterday. The affair was unprecedented in numbers, fully five thousand people being present, while the enthusiasm was unbounded. Two meetings were organized, the crowd not being able to get into the large warehouse where the meeting was announced to be held. Judge P. C. Shannon, of Pittsburgh, and Hon. Eben McJunkin, of Butler, delivered stirring speeches to the in-door meeting, which were attentively listened to and heartily applauded. Maj. J. F. Slagle, of Pittsburgh, and Colonel Thompson, of Butler, addressed the out-door meeting, creating an excellent impression on their auditors, and warming them up to a thorough appreciation of the duty of every true Republican to vote for General Hartranft as well as every other man on the Republican State and National tickets. The like of this meeting was never seen in this region, and has very effectually dampened the spirits of the Buckalewites.

Last evening the Grant, Wilson and Hartranft clubs joined in a torchlight procession, which was in every way a creditable display. We intend to "push things" here on Tuesday.

At Parker's Landing and Lawrenceburg.
Special Dispatch to the Commercial.
PARKER'S LANDING, October 5, 1872.

To-day was an epoch in the history of Parker's Landing, being the occasion of the largest and most enthusiastic meeting of Republicans ever got together here, and far overtopping all affairs ever gotten up by the Greeleyites. Several thousand people, some of them coming a long distance in wagons over the worst of roads, met in front of the Parker House at 2 P. M. to hear speeches by Hon. E. McJunkin and Judge P. C. Shannon. The addresses of these gentlemen were among the ablest and most convincing we have heard during the campaign, and did not a little to strengthen the wavering and confirm all in the faith.

The COMMERCIAL containing a report of the business men's meeting in Pittsburgh was sought after eagerly. The utterances of the merchants and manufacturers had great weight here, where they are well known to all our people. The reaction which set in several days ago has received a new impetus from the meeting of to-day, and many who were "on the fence" have openly declared for Gen. Hartranft.

It is known here that a very large number of men have been imported into this and neighboring places by the Democrats, and supplied with fraudulent naturalization papers, to be voted upon next Tuesday. The leaders of the Republican party are wide awake, not only here but in Clarion and Venango counties, and will look to it that these transient gentlemen receive just punishment if they attempt to perpetrate any frauds. The names of many of the chiefs of gangs, with their plans of operations, have been secured, and they will be promptly arrested if they appear at the polls.

This evening a procession composed of Republican clubs from Kittanning, Brady's Bend, Petersburg and other places, with our local organizations, marched through Parker's and up to Lawrenceburg, where Judge Shannon, Hon. Mr McJunkin, Col. Thompson, of Butler, and Maj. J. F. Slagle, made eloquent speeches. These gentlemen have done noble service for the Republican cause in this region. The houses in both towns were brilliantly illuminated during the parade, and there was a very fine display of pyrotechnics. We have never witnessed in this section such demonstrations as those of to-day, nor have we ever seen such enthusiasm in Republican quarters.

Grand Meeting at Petersburg

Torchlight Procession---Addresses by Hon. C. W. Gilfillan and Hon. T. J. Bigham.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.
PETERSBURG, PA., October 5, 1872.

There was a magnificent Republican demonstration here this evening, consisting of a torchlight procession, illumination and mass meeting. There was a large number of men bearing torches, and the crowd to listen to the speakers was immense, and the enthusiasm unbounded. Addresses were made by Hon. C. W. Gilfillan, of Venango, and Hon. T. J. Bigham, of Pittsburgh. The former spoke of State and national issues, while the latter gentleman paid particular attention to Mr. Buckalew and his discreditable record, giving him such an excoriating as he seldom receives. The audience greeted both the speakers with cheers repeatedly, and seemed loath to disperse. The people are thoroughly aroused, and will cast a solid vote for Hartranft and the whole ticket next Tuesday. Numerous cases of fraudulent registration are known here, but the men sent here by McClure and Sam. Randall will not be allowed to vote. The whole of Clarion county has been deluged with fraudulent naturalization papers by those model reformers, but the men who attempt to use them will find to their sorrow that our people are not so unsophisticated as they were supposed to be.

The Democrats Cheer for Buckalew, Jeff. Davis and the Southern Confederacy.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.
[By Pacific and Atlantic line.]
UNIONTOWN, PA., October 6, 1872.

The Republicans of this place and vicinity had another grand torchlight procession last night. About eight hundred persons, with four brass bands, were in line. The procession was over a mile long. "It took the starch right out" of the Democratic procession of Friday night. The streets were crowded with people. The ladies were out in full force waiving their handkerchiefs for Hartranft. The Democrats along the line of march hurrahed for Buckalew, Jeff. Davis and the Southern Confederacy. The Republicans here are thoroughly aroused, and will give a good report next Tuesday night.

The Republicans Never Better Organized.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.
WAYNESBURG, PA., October 6, 1872.

A large and enthusiastic Republican meeting was held yesterday at Rogersville, which was addressed by Colonel John Buchanan, Wm. S. Moore, of Washington, Pa., G. W. K. Minor, of Uniontown, and Hon. J. B. Donley. Messrs. Moore and Minor are very popular, and will receive a full vote for Congress and Senate.

Special Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Commercial.
WAYNESBURG, PA., October 3, 1872.

The campaign progresses finely in this section. Instead of being "without the semblance of an organized party," as the Chicago Tribune asserts of this county, the Republican party was never better organized—never wider awake to the duties of the hour—never more in earnest. The Republicans have held many meetings throughout the county, two of which were the largest, finest and most enthusiastic held by either party.

The Greeleyites are not idle. They are holding many meetings—tame, spiritless affairs. The leaders are growing desperate, and are using every effort to hold their coalition together—many Democrats refusing to "crow." R. M. Gibson, Esq., Thomas Marshal, Esq., and others have been advertised to address their meetings this week, but thus far have failed to put in an appearance. The Democracy have settled their Senatorial squabble by forcing Mr. Pauley, of this county, to withdraw, thus leaving the field to Mr. Playford, of Uniontown, a straightouter. Oh, they're a happy band of brothers.

W. S. Moon, Esq., our candidate for Congress, addressed the Grant Club to-night, and his remarks were well received. He is very popular here, and will receive a full vote. He will undoubtedly be elected over the present incumbent, Wm. McClelland, who voted for the bill paying Mrs. Lee $150,000 for Arlington.

The good work will be continued and meetings held throughout the county until the 8th, when we expect to report a reduced Democratic majority.

Curtin's defection meets the same response here as everywhere—"Good-bye, old friend, we follow the Stars and Stripes." GREENE.

NEW CASTLE, October 5, 1872.

A very enthusiastic meeting was held in Croton, a part of First ward, New Castle, on Friday evening. Three companies of Wide-awakes were out. The Glee Club, led by Jno. W. Falkeson, Esq., sang some stirring campaign songs, composed by that gentleman. The Baptist Church was crowded full; the audience was wild with enthusiasm. Addresses were made by Flynn, Martin and Treadwell. The meeting adjourned at a late hour, to meet at the polls on Tuesday to roll up the majority for the Republican ticket. Preparations are being made for a rousing all-day out-door meeting at Wampum, on Monday, the 7th inst. The lower end of the county will turn out solid.

Serious Runaway at Dunkirk, Ind.

Special to the Pittsburgh Commercial.
DUNKIRK, IND., October 5, 1872.

This afternoon, while a wagon belonging to a Mr. Mercer, of this place, was hitched in front of the flour mill, the horses became frightened and started to run. Mr. Miller made an effort to catch them and was thrown under the wagon. His left shoulder was mashed and his head severely injured. He is now lying in a critical condition.

The Yerkes Statement Controversy.

PHILADELPHIA, October 5.—Mayor Stokeley was interviewed this morning and confirmed that Yerkes had made affidavit to the truth of his statement made after his release from prison. The Mayor declined to give the affidavit for publication, saying that it will be used in trials soon to come off.

Rights of Voters!

They Will Be Maintained!

Circular from United States District Attorney Swoope.

Let Conspirators Beware!

UNITED STATES ATTORNEY'S OFFICE,
PITTSBURGH, October 7, 1872.

To United States Commissioners, United States Marshals, Election Officers and others:

It has come to my knowledge that a systematic effort will be made on Tuesday to hinder, delay and obstruct voters. Among other means to be employed for the purpose is the asking of a long list of frivolous, irrelevant and absurd questions, not required by law.

I deem it my duty, therefore, to call the attention of all officers and citizens to the following provisions of the Enforcement Act, and give public assurance that the law will be vigorously enforced at every election precinct in the Western Judicial District. To this end special Deputy United States Marshals have been appointed, who have power in the discharge of their duties, to call on the military forces of the United States.

By this act of Congress the following offenses have been created:

1. It is made a misdemeanor for any person by force, bribery, threats, intimidation, OR OTHER UNLAWFUL MEANS, to hinder, delay, prevent or obstruct, or to combine with others to hinder, delay, prevent or obstruct any citizen from doing any act required to be done to qualify him to vote, or to hinder, delay or obstruct any citizen in voting. The punishment—a fine of not less than $500, or imprisonment not less than one month nor more than one year.

2. It is made a felony for any two or more persons to band or conspire together to prevent any citizen from exercising the right to vote, or to injure, oppress, threaten or intimidate any citizen with intent to hinder or prevent him from exercising the right to vote, or because of his having exercised the same. The punishment is by fine or imprisonment, or both—the fine not to exceed $5,000, and the imprisonment not to exceed ten years—and the offender to be thereafter ineligible to any office under the Government of the United States.

3. It is made a criminal offense for any person to knowingly and willfully obstruct, hinder, or prevent any officer or other person charged with the execution of any process, or any person or persons assisting in the execution of process; or to rescue, or attempt to rescue any person arrested or detained by a United States officer; or to aid, abet, or assist any person so arrested, directly or indirectly, to escape from custody; or to harbor or conceal any person for whose arrest process has been issued. The punishment for either offense is fine not exceeding $1,000, or imprisonment not exceeding six months, or both.

4. It is made a crime for any officer of election to neglect or refuse to perform any duties required of him by any law of our United States; or to violate any duty so imposed, or to do any act thereby unauthorized with intent to affect any such election; or fraudulently to make any false certificate of the result of an election; or to withhold, conceal, or destroy any certificate or record required by law respecting or pertaining to such election; or neglect or refuse to make and return the same; or to aid, counsel, procure, or advise any voter, person or officer, to do any criminal act, or to omit to do any duties, the omission of which is criminal. The punishment is by fine, not exceeding $500, or by imprisonment not exceeding three years, or both.

The courts of the United States have exclusive jurisdiction of these offenses, and it is made the duty of the United States Attorney, the Marshal and his deputies, and the United States Commissioners, promptly to institute proceedings against all and every person or persons guilty of any of said offenses.

LANCASTER, OHIO, October 5, 1872.

A brilliant success is the result of a Republican demonstration here to-night. A splendid torchlight procession of five hundred voters delighted the whole populace, after which Speaker Blaine and Hon. M. D. Leggat, from two stands, addressed immense crowds. There was great enthusiasm.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.
MANSFIELD, O., October 6, 1872.

The Liberal Republicans held a meeting last night on the public park, jollifying over Georgia and closing up for next Tuesday. M. D. Harter and Gen. R. Brinkerhoff read a resolution declaring it to be the duty of Liberal Republicans to vote an unscratched Democratic ticket next Tuesday, which which was adopted by a weak vote. The enthusiasm was not remarkable.

The campaign in Richland county has been tame compared with other Presidential years. Weekly club meetings have been held by each party in the city, addressed mostly by home orators, and that is about all. No large mass meetings have been attempted on either side. A few township meetings have been held, with slim attendance, the Democrats faring the worst in this respect. The organization is defective on both sides. From a careful examination of the field I conclude that the vote will fall somewhat short of a full one, the Republicans losing some in the city and the Democrats in the country, leaving the majority about the same as last year, namely, 425 Democratic, being a Republican gain over 1870 of about one hundred. Berry, for Congress in the Fourteenth district, will lose quite heavily in Richland, Ashland and Crawford counties, but probably not enough to elect Douglas, Republican. Helby, Straight Democrat, will receive quite a respectable vote, especially in Crawford county. Gass, Republican, for county Probate Judge, will receive a large Democratic vote, and stands a chance of election, although he will lose some Republican votes.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.
ASHLAND, OHIO, October 6, 1872.

Thomas Ewing addressed a Democratic and Liberal meeting in this place yesterday. The meeting was only moderately large. Mr. Ewing spoke for two hours pleading for reconciliation, and reiterating the charges against the present administration. In the evening meetings were held by each party, Hon. G. W. Geddes addressing an out-door meeting and Hon. Alphonso Hart speaking to the Republicans in the Town Hall. The Republicans seem to have the best organization and are more enthusiastically in earnest than the Democrats, and are claiming a handsome gain for Tuesday next.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.
YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO, October 6, 1879.

The Greeley mass meeting, which was advertised to be held here yesterday, was quite a failure. The procession consisted of eight wagons and twenty horsemen, all told. Governor Walker, of Virginia, and Louis Schaffer, of Canton, addressed about three hundred persons.

A large Grant and Wilson mass meeting was held at Lowell yesterday, addressed by Hon. J. P. Southworth, of Alabama, and others. Several companies of Grant guards went down from here.

Hon. Judge Lawrence made a fine and telling speech here last night. He addressed the largest and most enthusiastic gathering of people that has assembled in our town for years. Many Democrats were present. The meeting was a success.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.
BELLFONSAINE, OHIO, October 5, 1872.

The Republicans held a grand meeting in this place to-day. It has been a day to be remembered by all friends of the good cause. At half past ten this forenoon a magnificent procession was formed at the city limits, and from there marched through the streets, making a splendid display. The procession was over five miles in length. It seemed each delegation present had labored hard to outdo the other in size and in large teams. Brass bands and three or four martial bands were in the ranks. The people seemed carried away with the questions which have agitated their minds, and they were never so enthusiastic before. The streets were thronged with a pleasant, agreeable crowd, and the citizens turned out en masse to meet the people from the surrounding county. The delegation from West Liberty was large and did honor to the Republicans of that place. A team of forty horses was in their delegation. Degraff did her part nobly. Rush creek came in strong, and all the delegations showed that the Republicans select Grant as their choice and will prove themselves true to the Union by their vote this month, as well as in November. At two o'clock the speaking commenced. Gen. Bristow made the opening speech. His eloquent thrusts at the Democracy were immeasurable. He spoke for over two hours to an immense crowd in the Court House square. He was obliged to leave for New York at four o'clock this afternoon. He was followed in his speech by Judge William Lawrence in an eloquent, argumentative speech. The Judge showed, with many reasons, why the Republicans should stand firm. He dwelt upon financial, political and other topics. Both speakers were frequently applauded and their addresses will do much good.

The Liberals are working hard and secretly to secure the election of their ticket throughout. They feel it is a desperate case.

The grandest torchlight procession ever witnessed here, took place to-night. Three hundred Grant Guards, with a splendid band from Kenton, arrived at seven o'clock by a special train, with five hundred uniformed Guards from West Liberty, to take part in the evening exercises. The procession was two miles in length, and as they passed through our streets the light was beyond description. The whole procession appeared in a blaze. The fire-works were magnificent. When this scene was ended, General Robinson addressed a very attentive audience upon the street. His speech lasted one hour and a half. The stand was then taken by Judge Lawrence, who delivered an able speech, lasting about an hour. Our meeting to-day has certainly been a splendid success, and all passed off without the least disturbance.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.
LIMA, October 6, 1872.

Saturday was set apart by the friends of Grant and Wilson for a grand demonstration at this place, and the meeting as to numbers and enthusiasm was a complete success. At an early hour the people began to pour in on every road leading to the city, in wagons, on horseback, with bands playing and flags flying, while the trains brought in from all directions large numbers of voters. At ten o'clock a procession was formed, led by the Lima brass band and headed by a large wagon containing forty girls and drawn by ten horses, marched through the principal streets of the town. The procession contained all manner of vehicles from the country loaded down with the sturdy farmers, and their sons and daughters, of Allen county. About two o'clock the crowd assembled around the speaker's stand in front of the court house. A careful observer counted five thousand people present, while others put it higher. Ex-Senator Wade was to make the principal speech of the day, but from some unknown reason failed to put in an appearance. This caused a deep feeling of disappointment, for many had come a great way to hear him. Samuel Sybrand, Esq., Republican candidate for Congress in the Fifth district, spoke for an hour or more in a very creditable manner, calmly discussing the issues of the campaign, and holding the attention of the crowd throughout. George Jamison followed in a few brief remarks.

In the evening, at seven o'clock, the Grant clubs of Lima and Ada formed into line and marched to the depot, where they met the Grant club and citizens of Van Wert, greeting them with loud cheers, firing of cannon and music. A procession of one thousand torches, led by the Oliver and cornet bands of Ada, Lima and Van Wert, marched from the depot to the public square, thence through the streets in all directions, making a fine display. After the parade a large crowd gathered at the Court House steps, where J. L. Price and Dr. Otoman, of Van Wert, made stirring speeches, being frequently applauded. Many buildings were illuminated, bonfires lighted, and the square presented an animated appearance. The meeting was probably the largest held here by either party since the Brough-Vallandigham campaign of 1863.

The Great Roorbach a Failure.

Effect of Outrages in Georgia.

Proscription at the Polls Means Proscription Away From Them.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.
WASHINGTON, D. C., October 5, 1872.

The full report of the Ku-Klux Committee, with the views of the Democratic minority, presented at the close of the last session of Congress, and after the nomination of Mr. Greeley, has just come from the Public Printer. It is signed by Senators Blair and Bayard, and Representatives Cox, Peck, Van Trump, Waddell, Robinson and Hanks. In treating of the political future of the negroes in the South, the report takes the ground that matters must return to the condition before the war, either by a rupture of the government itself, or by the organization of a new political party. The exact language of the report is as follows:

"But while the negroes of the South have position and power in the administration of public affairs, who can say, who can look into the future so clearly as to enable him to say how long this unnatural state of things will last. No one is so prescient as to able to fix the period of its duration. But that it must end somehow and at some time not in the distant future, no philosophic thinker will doubt. It is altogether too abnormal, too much opposed to instinctive feeling, some will say, for the prejudices of the white race to endure beyond the peculiar condition of popular opinion, brought about by a war prosecuted to the end for the freedom if not enfranchisement of the negro. Gradually in time and under change of circumstances this exceptional state of popular mind will wear out and pass away, and public opinion will vibrate back to its old condition, as it existed prior to the disturbing influences of war. This will be brought about by one of two things, either by a rupture of the government itself, or the springing up of some new and all powerful party out of the ruins of existing political organizations. When either of these two things shall occur, and God grant that it may not be the first, it will be the political death of the negro on this continent. So far as it relates to his future solidity as a race, commingled with whites within the Union, he will be in a worse condition than he was in a state of slavery, for the inevitable tendency will be to segregate him from the white race, and if not transported to some other country he will slowly but surely pass away like the aborigines, and his place among us, like that of the Indian, will be known no more forever."

The Great Roorbach Probably Scotched.

One part of the great Democratic roorbach, which was to have appeared to-morrow morning, has failed for want of money, and the premature exposure made by the Republican press has probably caused the withholding of the rest. The officials of the Treasury Department on Saturday became aware of the additional features of the villainy connected with the preparation of the document. It seems that those working up the matter here had proposed to certain clerks in the Treasury to pay $20,000 for pretended abstracts from the books showing enormous frauds in the issue of bonds and currency, which were to be accompanied with affidavits setting forth that the books were mutilated so as to conceal these transactions, and that forgery had been repeatedly committed in consummating these and other frauds of a similar startling character, and further that all of these frauds had been called to the personal attention of President Grant, and that on account of the high position of those involved, and supposed political interests of the party, he had connived at means taken to conceal them and suppress all evidence of their existence. Those engaged in the work here agreed to give the $20,000 if they could raise it, and sent an agent to New York city to make the attempt. Ready money could not be obtained there, but the parties were officially referred to a wealthy Liberal Republican gentleman in Connecticut. It was the delay thus caused that first led to the knowledge that underhand work of some kind was in progress under the direction of Liberals and ex-detectives here.

The Outrages in Georgia.

The outrages perpetrated by the Greeleyites in the Georgia election has had a marked effect here. Boswell, an independent Republican candidate against Chipman for delegate in Congress, has withdrawn in favor of the latter, and in a letter gives the following reasons: "Being satisfied from an actual canvass of the several legislative districts that if General Chipman, L. G. Hine and myself remain as candidates for Congress until the polls close on the day of election, the result will be in favor of the Democratic candidate, and believing that it will be claimed as the preference of the District of Columbia for Horace Greeley for President, and not being willing to lend my aid to the election of a Democratic candidate, thereby throwing away my whole political life, I, in deference to that party which has sustained me in the past, set aside all claims to personal preferment and withdraw my name from the canvass. In doing this, I say to my friends who have been my earnest supporters that the Republican party has been our shield and guide. If there are errors, let us correct them in the ranks, and this we can do by giving up personal grievances and demanding to be heard in the proper place. Georgia speaks, and she speaks for injustice to the colored people of her section. Proscription at the polls means proscription away from them. I want reconciliation and peace, but do not want it at the sacrifice of those who dared to defend the Union when the Union needed their defense. I want peace, when all the people can rest content without regard to color or race or sentiment. If the Democratic party wins here, it will exercise the same proscription it has in former days. Let us bury the past and unite once more for the sake of our national ticket."

The Fraudulent Naturalization Papers.

PROOF OF THE CONSPIRACY!

McClure and Randall to be Brought to Justice.

Correspondence Between Mayor Stokely and U. S. District Attorney Smith, of Philadelphia.

The fact that proof of a conspiracy by A. K. McClure, Chairman of a Liberal State Committee, and Samuel J. Randall, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, had been found, has already been published. In connection with this matter, His Honor, Mayor Stokeley, of Philadelphia, Saturday morning transmitted to United States Attorney Smith a letter, of which the following is a true copy:

MAYOR'S OFFICE OF THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA,
October 5, 1872.

Hon. Aubrey H. Smith, United States District Attorney Eastern District of Pennsylvania:

DEAR SIR—Information has been laid before me that a conspiracy to perpetrate election frauds on Tuesday next in Berks, Luzerne, Schuylkill, Northampton, and other counties, exists, by which a large number of aliens have been supplied with false naturalization papers, purporting to be issued by the Court of Quarter Sessions of this county. These fraudulent papers were manufactured in this city, by parties whose names I hope to be able to furnish you in a day or two, together with the names of others in the plot, whose movements have been closely watched during the past ten days.

"I have in my possession, for your use, whenever required, a letter from Hon. Samuel J. Randall to Hon. A. K. McClure, in the following words:

"A. K. McC—See McMullin to-day. He has all the naturalization papers. It is vital they should be in hand at once. Meet me to-night.

"Yours, SAM. J. RANDALL."

"And I am now prepared to give you the names of unimpeachable witnesses who will authenticate this letter.

"As these contemplated frauds have been concocted here. I intend to lay the evidence in my possession before the District Attorney of the county; but as it is intended to consummate them outside of this jurisdiction I deem it my duty to lay the facts before you also.

"Respectfully, your obedient servant,
"WM. S. STOKELEY."

THE REPLY OF U. S. ATTORNEY.

The U. S. District Attorney replied to this letter as follows:

OFFICE OF UNITED STATES ATTORNEY,
EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA,
PHILADELPHIA, October 5, 1872.

Hon. William S. Stokeley, Mayor of the City of Philadelphia:

SIR—Your letter to me of this date, stating that information has reached you of a conspiracy to perpetrate election frauds, on Tuesday next, in Berks, Luzerne and other counties, and that you hope in a day or two to furnish me with evidence that the laws of the United States are about to be violated by the parties implicated, is just received. I will give the matter immediate and earnest attention, as soon as the evidence referred to is laid before me. Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

AUBREY H. SMITH,
U. S. Attorney.

The Philadelphia Bulletin, remarking on the plot here developed, speaks of the Randall letter as follows:

We have seen this letter; and we have carefully compared it with numbers other letters of Mr. Randall's. There can be no doubt that it is in his handwriting. And there is no doubt it has been in the possession of Mr. McClure. The evidence that surrounds the case is full and strong, and it will be made public as soon as it can be done without frustrating the ends of justice.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.
PHILADELPHIA, October 6, 1871.

Randall's letter to McClure has been examined by a number of prominent gentlemen, and pronounced genuine. Copies of the fraudulent naturalization papers are in hands, purporting to be signed by Thomas Ashton, clerk, who never signs these papers in person. Evidence is accumulating and will be conclusive.

The Beaver Falls Sham!

A Set Up Job of Buckalewites to Cover Their Own Tracks.

The Plot Exposed---Look Out for the Scoundrels.

We stated, on Saturday, that the sensational roorbach started by the Buckalewites regarding an alleged Republican conspiracy against the ballot at Beaver Falls was in all likelihood a clumsy Democratic device to divert attention from the bribery and fraud contemplated by the managers of that party in other parts of the State. That this is the true explanation of the matter is further indicated by the fact that a special law is in operation at Beaver Falls authorizing the appointment of two additional election inspectors to count the vote and announce the result every hour. These inspectors were appointed by the Beaver county court last month, upon the recommendation of the Grant and Greeley clubs of that borough. One of these is Mr. Ira Ransom, Sr., the most prominent Democrat of the place; while his Republican associate, Mr. George W. Nelson, is also a well known and highly esteemed citizen. To talk, under such circumstances, of frauds in counting the vote, is criminally absurd; since, when the result is announced every hour, any attempt at false counting would inevitably be detected by the citizens, who know every voter, and how every vote is cast. One Inspector opens the ballots, and the other records them; so that both must necessarily be in the conspiracy to make it successful. Every person of ordinary intelligence will at once see that, under the law, frauds of the character alleged to be contemplated, are quite impossible in a place no larger than Beaver Falls. Buckalew's agents bungled their work. The fabricated letter on which the charge was based is said to be a copy of one abstracted from the pockets of McGinnis. This wont wash. How was it known the letter was in his pocket? Who placed it there? And why not keep the original? So, too, the purported interview with Dawson is altogether too thin; for even if true, it simply shows he was trying to probe the "detectives," of whom, it appears he had his suspicions from the first. Moreover, why did these men leave before there was any alarm; and why did the Democrats not wait until fraud of some kind had been attempted? The story is unquestionably a Greeley trick, employed partly to cast discredit on the legal vote of that borough, where the Republicans largely outnumber their opponents, and partly to throw Republicans off the scent of purposed Democratic malpractices at other points. It is to be hoped our friends everywhere will be duly vigilant and alert.

To secure justice in the prompt administration of the law, the following Deputy United States Marshals have been appointed for Beaver county:

John Grey, Beaver Falls.
C. A. Griffin, Beaver.
J. N. Hayes, Rochester.
Wm. Campbell, Bridgewater.
Charles Chamberlin, New Brighton.

The Simple Facts in the Case.
Special Dispatch to the Commercial.
BEAVER FALLS, October 5, 1872.

The articles which have appeared in the city papers relating to a supposed effort, upon the part of some of the Republicans of this place, to manipulate the county election, stuff the ballot boxes, and employ repeaters, are calculated to mislead the public, and at this late day may alarm friend and foe. To all thinking men the story is too thin to be believed, if the statements in the Leader of to-day were true, which is not the case. The simple facts, stated in a few words, are these: Three men, strangers, had been stopping for some time at the Metropolitan Hotel. Their business was unknown. About a week since, Mr. Hardy, the proprietor of the hotel where they were stopping, upon going to their room, found upon the floor a portion of a letter, signed Brown, which letter was similar in character to the one published in the Leader over the signature of "Jim." By reference to this letter it will be seen that nothing in it indicates the political party to which these men belonged. Two of them professed to be Democrats and were loud in their advocacy of that party, offering to bet upon the election of Buckalew. Mr. Hardy, upon the finding of the letter, being himself a staunch Republican, took it to the Republican Executive Committee, and they forthwith placed the matter in the hands of Republican policemen and a detective to work it up. Apparently an alarm was given. On Thursday night a large force of the Democratic notables of the county were present in secret caucus and very much excited over something. Between Thursday evening and Friday morning these strangers disappeared. With great show of energy and honesty the redoubtable Democratic officials of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia were upon the ground to make the arrests when they knew the men had been gone twenty-four hours. The conversation published as having occurred between J. L. B. Dawson and Alderman Strain never took place. No one supposes the Democrats or Liberals of Beaver county are in any way guilty of an attempt to manipulate the election in Beaver Falls, for with the small numbers of voters in the precinct, every one being well known by both parties, it would be impossible. The most plausible supposition is that it has been fixed up by parties in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh—a feint made upon Beaver Falls to detract attention from Pittsburgh and other large places. Certain it is that whatever attempt has been made, if any, to set up a job has been by other than and without the knowledge of the Republicans of Beaver county, who are fully able to elect their entire ticket without resorting to fraud.

FRAUD AND BRIBERY IN BEAVER COUNTY.

The Plot Exposed---The Democratic Candidate for Senator Implicated --The Story About Intended Frauds by Republicans a Mere Cover.

Special Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Commercial.
BEAVER FALLS, October 5, 1872.

The desperate leaders of the factions opposed to the Republicans in this county, in their frantic efforts to defeat Senator Rutan, are spending money freely, and a number of instances of attempted bribery have already come to light. Mr. G. Y. Edwards, a highly respected citizen of Darlington township, and a member of the Republican County Committee, makes the statement that Mr. Dunlap, the Democratic candidate for State Senator, offered him fifty dollars for his vote and influence, at the same time taking the money from his pocket and offering it to him. It was rejected with indignation, and Mr. Edwards is ready to certify on oath to this statement.

Nelson Scroggins, a respectable colored man, residing at Bridgewater, whose word will not be disputed, states that Robert Gilmore, one of Dunlap's conferees, offered him twenty-five dollars if he would vote and work for Dunlap.

Two other citizens of the county, who for the present prefer that their names should not be given, but who are ready to testify, state that W. W. Irwin offered them money to perform the same service, and told them that money would be used in this way in every township in the county.

It is in evidence that other Democratic candidates for county offices have personally approached and bribed, or attempted to bribe, voters, and steps have been taken to have them arrested. The story about intended frauds at Beaver Falls was started to cover up this game, and the matter is understood perfectly well here. Now that the game is understood, we feel confident that the result will be a Republican gain.

A Greeley Orator on the Soldiers' Convention.

WELLSVILLE, OHIO, October 3, 1872.

To the Editor of the Commercial:

Allow me through your widely circulated paper to present to the Soldiers and Sailors who fought in the cause of freedom and equal rights, the estimate in which they are held by prominent Greeley orators, who are soliciting their suffrages for the cause of peace and reconciliation, as they please to term it. And as a soldier and comrade, I ask it with the sufferings and privations of their living and dead comrades yet fresh in their memories, they can or will vote for the candidates of a party whose speakers denounce them in the most base and scurrilous language, because they care to assemble in a National Convention to give expression to their views upon the important qustions agitating the public mind. The following is an extract from a speech deliverd by J. Twing Brooks, a lawyer of Salem, Ohio, at a Greeley meeting in Canton. In refering to the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention, he said that "the Pittsburgh Convention was nothing more nor less than a gathering together of the revolting wrecks of Andersonville, Libby and other Southern prison pens, to exhibit their sores and display their emaciated forms, for the purpose of keeping alive in the memories of their countrymen the barbarous inhumanities they suffered at the hands of that Southern chivalry. This is the most disgraceful exhibition of the present age, and is deserving of the scorn and contempt of every lover of peace." Now let Mr. Brooks deny the truthfulness of the above quotation, and the names of gentlemen of veracity will be furnished, who will verify the same to be entirely correct.

Another Coal Oil Accident.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.
LIMA, OHIO, October 6, 1872.

Miss Charity Speaker, step-daughter of Joseph Bresseler, of this city, sixteen years of age, went into the cellar of his house yesterday morning with a coal oil lamp, and by some means the lamp was upset and exploded, setting fire to Miss Speaker's clothing, burning her person in a terrible manner. She died this morning from her injuries.

The delegation of Indians now in Washington City, dressed in fanciful costume, attended service there yesterday at the Metropolitan Methodist church. At the conclusion of the services they requested, through an interpreter, that the character of the exercises be explained to them, which was done by Rev. Dr. Newman.

Mysterious Death.

About four o'clock yesterday afternoon some boys were rowing in a skiff on the Monongahela river about opposite the foot of Eighth street, Birmingham, when they discovered the dead body of an infant floating in the water. The boys brought the body to the shore, and then summoned Esquire Krehan, who notified the Coroner. The body is that of a female child not over four months old, and plainly though comfortably clad. It was undoubtedly drowned by some. The clothes were saved for the purpose of identification, and the remains buried. A verdict of "found drowned" was rendered.

STOVES FOR UNITED STATES ARMY.

Manufacturers are requested to send to this Office Printed Descriptive Cuts and Price Lists of such Stoves as they make, and can recommend for use of the Army in Garrison and Camp.

The rooms in quarters of officers are generally of moderate size, not over 15 or 16 feet square.

Pieces should be put on cars or vessels securely packed for transportation.

Prices of spare parts are also desired.

From these lists it is intended to select those which, being suitable for the purpose, will be least costly in each geographical Military Department, or to be supplied.

EARLY VOTING.

At no previous election have there existed so many reasons why Republicans should vote early as the present. A failure to act on this rule may result in serious inconvenience to voters and possibly the loss of a portion of the fruits of the labor that has been done. It is unquestionably the design of the opposition to prevent the polling of the full Republican vote. A class of voters are disinclined to fight their way to the ballot boxes, highly as they prize the elective privilege. Early voting will tend to obviate this disagreeable necessity.

Aleck McClure, looking through prison bars, would be a pleasant sight to the honest citizens of the State. That there is some prospect of it, is of itself a gratifying fact; though there is too much reason to fear that he may in the end escape through the expedients which he will be able to adopt; but it will not be so with his deluded victims, who attempt to vote on forged naturalization papers. They will be left to their fate, and the penitentiary in part at least will claim its own.

All the indications from Ohio and Indiana presage a handsome Republican victory to-morrow, notwithstanding the desperate efforts which the Confederates have put forth to carry those States for Greeley. Nor will Nebraska give forth any uncertain sound. The only peg on which the coalition dares to hang a hope of success, is our own State. Vermont and Maine have shown that the East is secure. Our sister States of the West will maintain their portion of the grand Republican line intact and unimpaired. If the Greeleyites are beaten back in Pennsylvania, there will be nothing left for the lost cause but to get itself back to the dishonored grave from which it so lately emerged. Upon the answer of the people to-morrow depends the whole question—the inviolability of our splendid past, and the hopes of our still more noble future. What shall that answer be?

Never before in the history of the Commonwealth have the issues upon which the people have been called to pronounce been of so momentous a character as those which are to be determined to-morrow. Republicans! remember that this is not merely a contest for the possession of the Governorship and of the State Legislature, but a battle between the rancorous reactionary spirit which outraged and murdered loyal colored voters in Georgia the other day, and the moral forces which abolished slavery at the same time that they subjugated the rebellion. The attack is not so much on General Hartranft as it is on the Republican party of the nation—on peace, liberty and Union. It is the country, not Pennsylvania alone, that is endangered. Shall the recorded verdicts of the war be maintained, or reversed? It rests with you to decide.

It is supposed that Colonel Forney has at the last moment repented of his opposition to Governor Hartranft; or, at least, that he regrets the ascendancy which he has permitted Aleck McClure to obtain over him; for, says the Press of Saturday, "the legitimate work of the campaign may now be considered finished. All that is to come after this will be of a fraudulent character." This, probably, has reference to the exposed conspiracy of McClure, Randall and others to issue forged naturalization papers and to tamper with the returns from Democratic counties, in order to obtain by foul means what they know cannot be won by fair. But just as the Republicans of the State have steadily refused to be split and divided, notwithstanding the strenuous exertions of the Press to disrupt the party, so they will now be able to defeat the plot of McClure and Randall without its help.

The Leader undertakes to break the force of the straightforward, manly utterances of the speakers at the business men's meeting on Friday night. Of course misrepresentations had to be indulged in, one instance of which will suffice. Says the Leader:

> The following address was read by General Howe, the chairman of the meeting; it will be observed that there is no mention of Mr. Hartranft, and that there is a candid confession of the honesty of Mr. Buckalew, nothing having been proven to his detriment.

The speech of General Howe is then given, and toward the close of it, from the Leader's own columns, we cut the following:

> I have no word of depreciation, much less of detraction, to bestow upon the candidates of the opposition; common charity compels me to assume all men to be honest and patriotic until the contrary is proven; but if my opinion of the standard bearers of the Republican party is esteemed of any moment, I have no hesitation in saying that I have full confidence in the ability and integrity of General Grant, our candidate for President, and General Hartranft, our candidate for Governor; and that the best interests of the people will be secured by their election.

"Georgia sends greeting to Pennsylvania," exclaim the Confederate papers, referring to the election of a Democratic candidate for Governor of the former State, and the struggle which to-morrow is to be decided in our own. Our people know how she sends it. It is not a friendly greeting, and the blood of innocent men, massacred because they attempted to exercise the right of suffrage, is upon the hand that is stretched out. Said the leading Greeley organ of Georgia, on the morning of the election, "Walker" (the Republican candidate), "represents the men who gloried in our overthrow. Vote against him!" a direct appeal to the spirit which inaugurated the war of the rebellion, and ploughed the land with graves. Governor Smith, the Greeley Governor elect, speaking on the night of the election, said: "I will use anything for the purpose of beating Grant. If the devil himself, coming up from the infernal regions, smelling of brimstone, were a candidate for President under present circumstances, I would take him rather than take Grant." And this frantic utterance was vociferously applauded. Republicans of Pennsylvania, you know precisely what Greeleyism means, and to what it tends. You will fight to-morrow the battle of the whole nation.

The effect of the Business Mens' meeting on public sentiment has been most marked. It has been as inspiring to Republicans as disparaging to Democrats. It at once exploded the reports which had been industriously circulated that the Republicans of Pittsburgh and Allegheny were seriously divided on General Hartranft and that not a few of those who signed the call and were most active in the meeting were among the disaffected. It proved, furthermore, how completely has the cloud of reports prejudicial to General Hartranft failed of their purpose, and how unsubstantial were the expectations of the Buckalewites in this respect. The meeting, taken in connection with the activity of Republicans and the thoroughness of the party organization, established the fact that Old Allegheny is right, sound to the core, and will do her duty to-morrow. Thus at the last moment has the ground slipped from under the Bucklewites, and left them gloomy and despairing. To Republicans we say: Push forward the work to-day, and to-morrow rally to the polls as one man, determined not to be deprived of any legitimate fruit of your labors. Stand up unflinchingly at all points, to the end that every Republican voter SHALL HAVE THE PRIVILEGE OF VOTING.

PENNSYLVANIA THE LAST DITCH OF GREELEYISM

For the past week or ten days the eyes of Greeley's supporters everywhere throughout the country have been fastened on Pennsylvania with a gaze whose intense eagerness is absolutely painful. Highly important as are the elections in Ohio and Indiana, the campaign in those States has, in their minds, been dwarfed into complete insignificance beside the all-embracing issues at stake in the struggle here. Every Confederate paper in the country admits that if Buckalew is defeated to-morrow, the Presidential contest will be decided in favor of Grant almost without further effort. But every one of them claims, also, that unless Hartranft shall be elected the triumph of Greeley in November will be placed beyond dispute. They know that no candidate was ever chosen President without the electoral vote of Pennsylvania, and they see the utter unlikelihood of the party which fails to carry the State now, succeeding in doing so in November. Hence the malignant persecution waged against General Hartranft the tenacity with which, notwithstanding his clear, emphatic and triumphant vindication, his enemies still frantically cling to the ruined pieces of their shattered lies; the infamous plot of McClure and Randall to overcome the honest Republican majority of the State by means of forged naturalization papers, and the general spirit of diabolism which has characterized the whole progress of the Greeley-Buckalew campaign from its beginning down to the present day. If the history of American politics furnishes no parallel to the impudent shamelessness of the coalition in this State, it is because never before, in any Presidential campaign, was a candidate reduced to so desperate a strait as Greeley. The Confederates have reached their last ditch, and are moving earth and the pit to prevent themselves from being overwhelmed and to turn their past defeats into final victory. The election of Buckalew will be hailed with a savage shout of exultation by every Ku-Klux and corruptionist in the country. The Republicans of Pennsylvania are not ignorant of the state of the case. They know the nature and extent of the issues involved, the peril and the obligation of the hour. The grand old Commonwealth expects every man to do his duty.

A GAME THAT WON'T SUCCEED.

W. D. Moore, Chairman of the Democratic Committee of Allegheny county, has undertaken more than the law allows. He has issued a circular, or rather a stump speech, to Inspectors of Election, together with about one hundred questions, which he expects them put to each and every voter. These questions, with two or three exceptions, are wholly unknown to the law, and have been framed with no other view than to deprive voters—notably negro voters—of the opportunity to vote.

The questions are frivolous and impertinent, as well as unknown to the law, and any person who attempts to exact answers as the condition of voting, will render himself liable to severe penalty. The law, not Mr. Moore, regulates elections, defines the duties of Inspectors and secures the rights of voters. The plot of the ambitious Mr. Moore having come to the knowledge of United States District Attorney Swoope, that officer has given him and all others to understand that there is a law of Congress just suited to his case, and informed him and the public what will happen if there is an attempt to inflict his catechism on voters. United States District Attorney Swoope's circular is published elsewhere; and we commend it to the attention of Mr. Moore, and all others who have a suspicion that they can catechise voters in the manner contemplated. Let him or them only try it.

The law cited by Mr. Swoope seems to have been framed for precisely such attempts as Moore's, whose questions, to the apprehension of every one, have been framed expressly to deprive negroes of their votes. Any attempt to follow out Moore's instructions would as completely nullify the election as though the polls were to be closed an hour after the opening. It is a shallow device of a shallow demagogue.

Deputy United States Marshals will be appointed to-day to see that voters are permitted to vote, and that no attempt to nullify the election is successful. Let Mr. W. D. Moore and all others in his conspiracy take warning.

IN THE NAME OF REFORM.

We published on Saturday the evidence of a colossal conspiracy against the purity of the ballot-box in this State, entered into between Colonel A. K. McClure, Chairman of the Liberal State Committee; Hon. Samuel J. Randall, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, and Alderman McMullin, of Philadelphia, a person of notoriously evil reputation, having for its object the carrying of the State for Buckalew, by means of the distribution of thousands of forged certificates of naturalization, with a counterfeit seal attached, throughout the various Democratic counties in the State, for use upon election day. These proofs—which are partly furnished by Randall himself, in the shape of a letter to McClure, calling for the immediate utilization of the spurious certificates in question, are of so direct and circumstantial a character as to be absolutely incontrovertible, even to the most sceptical or prejudiced mind.

This diabolical plot to nullify the vote of the honest and intelligent citizens of the State, was hatched and prosecuted, it should be remembered, by men who stand at the head of the so-called party of "reform;" who profess an exceeding anxiety for the purification of the offices of the Commonwealth; who have terribly inveighed against the "corruption" which they claim to have crept into the administration of public affairs, and have lifted up their hands in holy horror at the low standard of political morality which, they say, prevails in the Republican party. These are the very men who have prated longest and loudest of the necessity of elevating the tone of the public conscience; whose nice sense of justice has been shocked beyond measure at the idea of a State official becoming a private borrower in the money market, because of the suspicion to which, in some minds, it might possibly give rise concerning his official integrity; who have howled themselves hoarse with indignation over the release of Yerkes, and have made the State ring from one end to the other with their high-keyed protests against jobmongers and "penitentiary birds." These are the leaders, representatives and expounders of the party which asks the people of Pennsylvania to deliver over the control of the State and nation into their keeping, in the interest of good government and "reform." And so earnest and unselfish were they, to all appearances, that it is possible some well-intentioned persons may have been deceived into believing them sincere. If so, the enormous cheat will no longer be maintained; for the revelations to which we have referred stamp all their fine professions as foul hypocrisy, and themselves as among the worst enemies of the institutions they have assumed to be so solicitous to uphold. Whoever attempts a fraud upon the ballot box commits moral treason against the Republic, and is guilty of a crime against the liberties of the whole people. Voters of Pennsylvania! Not content with trying to crawl into power in the State and in the nation by making General Hartranft the victim of a blacker conspiracy than was ever before known in the history of politics, these high-minded "reformers" have undertaken to defraud you of your dearest rights as citizens, by infamously plotting to make the expression of your choice at the polls of no account. See to it that their wickedness is thoroughly foiled.

THE OUTCOME OF GREELEYISM IN GEORGIA.

The dispatch, elsewhere printed, from the Chairman of the Republican State Committee of Georgia, concerning the manner in which that State was carried for the Greeley ticket, interprets the full meaning and significance of the Confederate movement all over the land, and shows that to be true which we have all along asserted—namely, that, masked under a fair pretense, Greeleyism is the foulest conspiracy against the peace and safety of the nation that was ever hatched. "This," says the Tribune, "is the beginning of the movement that is to place the Sage in the White House." This, says Jere. Black, is the commencement of the revolution that is to extinguish the reconstruction acts and amendments. This, say the banded conspirators of the South, is the inauguration of the new era that is to witness our heel again upon the necks of the blacks. This, forsooth, is the beautiful "reconciliation," to whose accomplishment the people of Pennsylvania are asked to contribute to-morrow. It is providential that Georgia has held an election on the eve of the struggle in the great central, pivotal States of the Union. Not a man in them all can now profess ignorance of the exact nature of the issues at stake. Voters of Pennsylvania! Shall the solemn constitutional provisions incorporated into the organic life of the land stand or fall? Shall the sacred guarantees of the nation to its freedmen be maintained or made a mockery? Shall order reign, or chaos; and the spirit of safety rule, or riot and assassination stalk unrebuked abroad? That is the question. Georgia sends greeting to Pennsylvania, say the Confederates. And of a truth so it is. The Ku-Klux of that State yell out their bloody encouragement to Randall, McClure and their fellow conspirators of this. In whatever euphemistic phrases the movement of which these Georgia outrages are the outcome may be disguised, it is a capital crime against the honor and dignity of the nation. And you are to deal with it to-morrow. What shall be the character of that dealing?

THEY WILL HAVE THEIR DESERTS.

The rumor was current Saturday and yesterday that A. K. McClure, Chairman of the Greeley State Committee, and Samuel J. Randall, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, had been arrested for procuring and sending out forged naturalization papers, with the intention of having them voted on in different parts of the State. While the report has not yet been verified, it probably has considerable foundation, and is likely to prove true to-day. It is understood that a dispatch has been received from a Philadelphia official, to the effect that evidence sufficient to justify criminal proceedings against McClure and Randall has been obtained; in view of which Judge McKennan's presence was desired in Philadelphia at the earliest moment. It is understood furthermore that Judge McKennan reached that city yesterday morning. The discovery of the plot arranged by McClure and Randall was most fortunate. Fraudulent voters relied on to execute it, scattered throughout the State, should take warning. With their chiefs arrested, if not looking through prison bars, their own safety becomes the matter of greatest concern. Not all will escape. A part at least will pay the penalty of becoming the dupes of McClure and Randall, and the prospect is that a numerous company of "Reformers" will become tenants of institutions which the State has provided for criminals.

CONFIDENCE DYING OUT.

The confidence which the Democrats a few days ago pretended to have in the election of Buckalew, and with which by extraordinary means they expected to fire their followers, has within the last few days so weakened that their efforts to keep up appearances are little less than ludicrous. It now turns out that there was no other ground of expectation than the frauds which McClure and Randall had plotted, and which, there is good reason to believe, will be frustrated by the timely exposure of the plot and the arrest of the conspirators. Confidence thus engendered necessarily disappears when exposure takes place. Furthermore, this show of confidence had the effect to arouse Republicans to increased efforts, and in this view of the case the braggists have our thanks. The New York World, which a few days ago set up an unqualified claim to Pennsylvania, cannot disguise its doubts now—indeed, it virtually gives up the State. Republicans! Right ahead till the polls close! Victory is within your grasp.

New Hampshire, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Oregon, North Carolina, Vermont and Maine, have each in turn spurned the Confederate movement, and repudiated the Greeley conspiracy. Even in Democratic Kentucky, Tennessee and West Virginia, the Republican cause has made substantial and marked advancement. Delaware, too, where Bourbonism is as indigenous to the soil as its peaches, is fast outgrowing the fallacies and prejudices of its past, and ranging itself side by side with the liberty loving and preserving States. The sole hope of the reactionists to-day is in Pennsylvania—the grand old State that ever since the formation of the Union has marched in the van of its progress. Republicans! Shall this noble record of a hundred years be effaced to-morrow? That is the question.

On Seminary Hill in Allegheny city there is a monument—a consecrated cenotaph, which the reverent love and affection of the people of the county of Allegheny have builded to the memory of the heroes who went forth from among them to gather death into their bosoms, in order that the country might live. It is proposed to engrave upon the panels of this shaft the names of all these dead brothers, to the end that the people who shall come after us may know of whose high martyrdom our wondrous Republic is the mighty outcome. And this, surely, is well. But we are told, in effect, by the Confederates of whom Buckalew and Greeley are the representatives, that if this plan is carried out it will keep alive the bitterness and hatred of civil war, and that in the interest of that "reconciliation" which in Georgia the other day trampled the laws of the land and the rights of the freedmen under foot, we ought to tear down this sacred monument and raze out all signs of its existence. In Maryland they have already begun this kind of work. That is to say, they have taken down the tattered flags that were borne into battle by the loyal soldiers of that State, and packed them away in an old lumber room. And a vote for Buckalew to-morrow is a vote in favor of doing the same thing here. What say you, people of Pennsylvania?

GENERAL AND PARTICULAR.

At Lyons, New York, last week, a farmer's team ran away, and the farmer was thrown from the wagon and killed. In the afternoon, a relative of the deceased drove the same team to the village to get a coffin, and in crossing the railroad he was run into by a locomotive and killed, with the horses.

A review of the amount of gold and silver yielded in California shows that there is a slow but steady decline in the product. Numerous claims that have been worked by sluicing and the hydraulic process are exhausted every year, and very few are opened.

Norfolk, Virginia, has a remarkably pious dog. He has been a regular attendant upon all the services at one of the churches in that city for the last ten or twelve years. Whenever the bell rings, whether for morning, evening or night services, he repairs immediately to church, and remains there quietly and orderly until the congregation is dismissed.

Ashes were always considered good to make corn and grass grow, and now they have been found wonderfully efficacious in raising cities. Chicago has grown at the rate of a house a day since their application.

The telegraph has been found useful in a curious way in Connecticut. A lunatic, who was formerly an operator, lately escaped from the asylum at Hartford, and no trace of him could be found until one night an old associate of his recognized his touch in the clicking of the instrument at his side. The missing man had tried his hand at his old craft, and thereby revealed his whereabouts.

There seems to be quite a disposition in England to take the Geneva award out of the private parties who built the rebel privateers and fitted them out, and so made fortunes at the risk of the honor of Great Britain, and, as it turns out, at her cost. This would be placing the responsibility where it justly belongs.

The tidal phenomenon on Lake Ontario, which was noticed last June, has again appeared. The greatest change in the depth of the water observed is twenty-two inches. The lake is very quiet, and there is nothing visible in the surroundings to create the unusual phenomenon.

It is said that solutions of gum can be kept from becoming mouldy by adding a few drops of sulphuric acid. A little alum also has a decided effect.

It is said that the Island of St. Helena is gradually ceasing to be a rendezvous for shipping, and that the English government does not regard it now as of much importance. The falling off in the number of vessels calling at the Island is due to the great diversion of the Eastern trade from the old route to the new one, via the Suez Canal.

The New York hack drivers, who are on a strike, have discovered a novel and apparently effective instrument for the coercion of their employers. They declare that most of the stable keepers are violating the law in carrying on business without license, and threaten to complain to the Mayor.

The English papers are filled with accounts of the annual autumn manœuvers of the British troops—regulars, volunteers, and militia. There has been reviews and sham fights on a grand scale, and all England has been agog over the movements of the defenders of the country.

The government of Prussia, it is said, has finally resolved upon the construction of a ship canal to connect the Baltic with the North Sea, and a commission of engineers and superior officers has been appointed to proceed to the spot to make the preliminary arrangements.

There is an epidemic among the horses in Toronto, Canada, of a catarrhal character. Almost all the horses belonging to the street car companies and livery stables are affected. It is calculated that over seven hundred horses are now sick.

Announcement is made of the completion of the Australian overland telegraph. The completion of this line gives assurance that at an early date dispatches will go through from England to the antipodes, and the electric communion of the world be made still more universal and perfect.

Andrew D. Vanding, an influential Democrat of Perry county, is an independent anti-Greeley candidate for Congress in the Fifteenth district. There is a split among the Democrats of the Sixth district. The Montgomery county delegation to their convention denounce the nomination of Witte as fraudulent, and are again running Ephraim L. Acker, member of the present House.

Evansville, Ind., has in course of erection a rail mill, and is now agitating the subject of putting up blast furnaces. There is an abundance of block coal within forty miles of the city, easily accessible by railroads already completed or soon to be finished. The cold short iron ore in Hardin county, Ind., is only eighty miles away, and a railway will soon be in operation between that section and Evansville; while the Missouri ore can be transported to the furnaces very cheaply. It is estimated that iron of good quality can be made at a cost of only $23 62 per ton. An effort is being made to organize a company to carry out this project.

The Greeleyites of Yellow Springs, Ohio, put up a tall hickory pole, from which flaunted to the breeze a banner bearing the names of the Chappaqua wood-chopper and the gentleman who takes butter on his watermelon. The other morning the town was electrified at discovering nailed to the pole, just under the banner aforesaid, an ominous black streamer, having on one side a skull and cross-bones, on the other the word "crow" in large white letters. The Confederates are terribly incensed, but none of them will undertake to climb the hickory and remove the distasteful ornament.

Mr. William P. Schell, the Labor Reform candidate for Governor, has finally withdrawn from the canvass. It's a matter of no particular importance in any way, as very few of the workingmen would have supported him.

Quite a number of Democrats in Clarion, who do not like boiled corvus Americanus, have joined the Grant and Wilson club in that place. News of this kind is becoming too frequent for the comfort of the crow eaters.

The Harrisburg Patriot says: "There is victory in the skies." Glad of it. There's no chance of the Democracy every reaching it up there.

PERSONAL.

Col. Edward Daniels, editor of the Richmond State Journal, has been nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the Alexandria (Va.) district.

Dr. Paul Schoeppe, recently acquitted on a second trial (after being once under sentence of death) of the murder of Miss Steinnecke, whom he was charged with having poisoned in order that he might come into possession of her property left to him by her will, has now withdrawn his claim under the will, and has filed in the Orphan's Court of Baltimore a petition representing that he became the lawful husband of Miss Maria M. Steinnecke in the city of Carlisle, Pa., on the 14th day of January, 1869. The petitioner prays the court to revoke the probate of said will and the letters testamentary granted thereunder, and to grant letters of administration to the petitioner as the husband of the deceased.

There is living in Kanawha county, West Virginia, Mrs. Rachel Stanley, who was born in Bedford county, Virginia, in 1774. She has a grand-daughter fifty-six years old, and has fourteen children, ninety-nine grand-children, and two hundred and twenty-three great-great-grand-children. The Charleston Courier says: "Within that period of ninety-eight years the revolution came, Cornwallis surrendered, Washington and fourteen other Presidents presided and died, Napoleon began and ended his military career, Byron came into the world, startled it, and died. And yet, here is old Aunt Rachel, perched upon the summit of a Kelley's creek mountain, in her old arm-chair, like Tennyson's eagle, ringed with the azured world she sits, and breathes the upper air as if she intended to live right on, in defiance of time."

Twenty-two of the bare footed friars from Guatemala have arrived in New York, and are at present cared for by the convent of Capuchins. The present a variety of nationalities, some speaking French, Spanish, and some only a dialect of the Indian language of South America. They communicate in Latin with the brotherhood in this country. The Superior, Rev. Padre Gabriel, is nearly eighty years old. All are clad in the coarse, brown robe of the order, girt with a rope and furnished with a cowl.

A Massachusetts paper notes a remarkable fact that "Elihu Emerson, of Leicester, who is over one hundred and one years old, had his measure taken, Monday, for a new suit of clothes." Why on earth shouldn't he have his measure taken for a new suit of clothes? A man of his years needs clothes as well as another, and likes to have them fit as well.

They should quit abusing Pere Hyacinthe for marrying. They should remember that the fascinations of a Yankee widow traveling as the agent of a patent corset are not to be whistled down the wind as you would the charms of an ordinary woman traveling merely for fun.

A real case of Othello and Desdemona is reported from Albany. A colored man in the employ of a wealthy farmer who had one fair daughter and no more, won that fair daughter's heart by telling her of the dangers he had passed in his redemption from slavery, his service as a body servant in Sherman's army, in its march to the sea, and all the "battles, sieges, fortunes" that he had undergone. The story of the dusky Moor so captivated the gentle maiden's heart that she eloped and married him without her father's knowledge and consent.

The "King of the dogs" has just recently died in Paris. He was an ironmonger, and was known familiarly as "Tom." On one occasion he has bitten by a mad dog, and the wound was cauterized and healed. Ever after he took a strange fancy to house stray dogs. He devoted his time to them, and trained them so that they all rose simultaneously—a queer sight—on their hind legs when he appeared, in courteous salutation. For his pet dogs he had various names. One he called his Minister of Justice, another his Minister of War, and so on.

The suicide of Miss Alice Blanche Oswald, an American young lady, at Waterloo Bridge, London, has awakened considerable sympathy in that city. Her sad story and tragic end have stirred to active interest our English cousins, and they are subscribing liberally for the erection of a home for respectable foreign ladies of the "so-called educated class," who find themselves without friends and money in the world's metropolis. Such a retreat would have saved from the sin of self-slaughter our countrywoman, Miss Oswald. It is gratifying to know that the humbler classes of the English people, whose ready sympathies have been aroused by Miss Oswald's blameless life and awful death, are subscribing freely to the home for strange and distressed ladies in London, an institution which should have been built full a century ago. But better late than never, and benevolent Americans cannot well employ their surplus means better than by aiding this latest and best London charity.

Defend Your Health.

The fall of the leaves not only symbolizes human decay, but promotes it. In other words, the effluvia from dying and rotten vegetation is unfavorable to health. To this and other causes—especially excess of moisture in the atmosphere—may be ascribed to the prevalence of acute disorders of the stomach, bowels and liver at this season. Every person of bilious habit is liable to be very bilious in the fall. Then, too, all persons whose digestion is weak are more than ordinarily dyspeptic, and individuals predisposed to colic, diarrhœa and dysentary are particularly likely to be attacked by these complaints. The most complete defense against each and all of these distressing ailments is bodily vigor. To obtain this blessing in all its plentitude where it does not exist, and to preserve and perpetuate it where it does exist, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is earnestly recommended. It is the peculiar office of this preparation to reinforce and regulate the important organs which digest and temper the food, and convert it into life-sustaining blood. Bodily vigor depends upon the nourishing qualities of that fluid, and the nutritiousness of the blood depends upon the functional activity and regularity which it is the special province of the Bitters to secure. Hence it is the best defense of health at this season, and indeed at all seasons. When dysentery, diarrhœa, bilious colic, and other violent affections of the bowels, become epidemic, as they often do in certain parts of the country in the fall, it will be found that persons who have been wise enough to resort to the Bitters as a preventive are almost invariably exempted from the scourge.

HOPKINS'S

Improved Magic Healing Powder.

Fine as dust, the only natural and complete remedy for Sores and Wounds on HORSES and CATTLE. Scratches, Grease Heals, Thrush, Poll Evil, Fistula, Quittor, Sore Back, Sore Tongue, Galls, Fresh Cuts, Sore Teats on Cows, Hoof Rot, Foul in Cattle's Feet, &c.

Hopkins's Magic Healing Powder, one of the most Wonderful Discoveries of the age.

It is destined to make a complete revolution in the manner of treating sores and wounds on both man and beast, discarding Salves, Plasters, Ointments, Poisonous Washes and Liniments. It will not inflame nor aggravate disease, but on the first application begins assisting Nature to heal. We challenge the world to produce any other remedy that will cure diseases named on our circular as quickly and satisfactorily as the Magic Healing Powder.

Rody Patterson's Certificate.—This is to certify that I have thoroughly tested Dr. Hopkins's Magic Healing Powder, and find it to be an article of merit; have adopted it, and would recommend it to others as being the most speedy and reliable remedy for cleaning and healing sores on horses that I have ever used.

SATURDAY EVENING, October 5, 1872.

The New York bank statement is again on declining averages, which brings the reserve below the limit required by law, and puts it in the hands of the Controller, if he enforces the law rigidly, to create a panic in the market. The banks are compelled to cease to discount or loan money, except on bills of exchange, until their reserve is up to the 25 per cent. point, so that no relief can be looked for from the banks during the present stringency, if they fear the "powers that be." It is strongly intimated, by those who know, that the time of calling for a statement is regulated by the New York Association of National Banks, and that no statement will be called by the Controller till after the squeeze, and the banks are ready to respond. The statement of to-day is is follows:

Specie decreased	$2,019,600
Legal tenders decreased	3,067,100
Total	$5,086,700
Deposits decreased	9,299,800
Circulation decreased	130,900
Total	$9,430,700
Actual decrease in reserve	5,086,700
Required decrease in reserve	2,357,675
Actual loss	$2,729,025

—With a loss in resources of about nine and a half millions the loans are decreased but $2,483,500.

The loss of depositors by the failures of National banks during the past three years has been $5 38 on each $100,000, not $538, as given in our last report.

—We clip the following from a free trade journal:

The annual report of the national association of bar iron manufacturers shows, that the annual value of iron manufactured in this country is $900,000,000; that the wages of labor engaged upon it must exceed $600,000,000; and that the number of workmen employed upon it is 940,000. Calculating the consumption of agricultural products by these workmen and their families upon a much smaller estimate than the census establishes, it yet amounts to more than three times the value of all the breadstuffs and grain which we sell abroad.

There could be no better argument framed in favor of a protective tariff, which has fostered and built up this vast industry, whereby the agricultural population find a home market for their products, three times the amount of our foreign shipments of grain. Should these 940,000 workmen and their families be be thrown out of employment by the discontinuance of manufactures, they must go to agriculture for a livlihoood, thereby not only destroying the present market for the farmer, but by competition would so reduce prices of farm products that the result of the farmer's labor would not purchase the manufactured articles he now requires, even if the prices of wrought materials were not advanced.

—Gold note banks are becoming quite popular in California, if not at the East. There are three already in operation in California, two being in San Francisco and one at Sacramento. The Pacific Bank in San Francisco will probably be reorganized as a gold note bank, and permits will be granted for the organization of similar institutions at Oakland, San Jose, Stockton, Petaluma, Santa Barbara and Yreka. These banks are needed in every important town in California, and the time is not far distant when they will be established.

BUSINESS.

The market for the past week has been one of unusual excitement in regard to oil matters. The shutting down of the wells has proved a success. The result was that crude oil has advanced one dollar and five cents per barrel, as compared with prices that ruled previous to our last general review. The same may be said of refined. The advance during the same time was two cents per gallon. As a matter of course producers and refiners are in the best possible humor, having just cause for feeling jubilant. The eastern markets are considerably excited, prices are still looking up. From this it will be perceived that the good time has come at last. Long may it continue.

PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, SATURDAY, October 5, 1872.

Cattle.

The receipts of cattle to-day fair of through stock, but light of these intended for sale here.

The market during the early part of the week was slow and unfavorable for holders, but the run became light toward the close, and with favorable advices from the East, trade ruled better. Prices advanced from ¼ to ½ on good grades, but on common there was not much improvement, though sales were better and quicker. At this writing some few loads are going to Allegheny for retail, and there remains nothing in the yards unsold.

PRICES.

Extra 1,400 to 1,500 lbs, fine and smooth, $6 75 to $7 00; extra 1,300 lbs, fine and smooth, $6 25 to $6 50; prime 1,200 lbs, fine and smooth, $5 25 to $5 75; good 1,100 lbs, $4 50 to $5 25; good 1,000 lbs $4 00 to $4 70; common, $3 50 to $3 75; bulls, $2 50 to $3 00.

Hogs.

The run of hogs during the last two days has been heavy. The market since the first of the week has been over stocked. The demand, so to speak, has been comparatively light. When considering the receipts the prices are off from ¼c to ½c, and the market is dull and draggy.

PRICES.

The following are the current rates: Extra Philadelphia $5 25; prime Philadelphia, $5 00 to $5 10; Yorkers, $4 50 to $4 60.

Sheep.

The receipts of sheep during the last two days have been light, and consist principally of the common grades. The market on prime sheep has ruled moderately active all week, the best selling as fast as they arrived. Common sold slower, but still for fair prices. The market closed firm with everything sold or shipped out.

PRICES.

Extra, 95 100 lbs fine wool, $6 15 to $6 25; extra, 90 lbs fine wool, $5 90 to $6 10; good, 85 lbs fine wool, $5 35 to $5 75; fair, 80 lbs fine wool, $5 00 to $5 25; common, $4 25 to $4 50.

Boats to Leave To-Day.

Brownsville and Geneva, U. S. M., 8 A. M. and 5 P. M.
Elizabeth.......Elizabeth.......Houghton, 3 P. M.

THE marks last evening indicated only seventeen inches, the lowest point reached for a long time. When navigation is resumed our readers shall be duly advised of the same.

THE Cincinnati parties who are now running the Argosy are contemplating the purchase of the Evansville and Cairo packet, Arkansas Belle.

THE United States packets on the slackwater leave daily at 8 A. M. and 5 P. M. These boats are sidewheelers and were built expressly for the trade, and are in charge of careful and attentive officers. For further information call on the Captain, A. S. Carlile, on the wharfboat.

ANOTHER SENSIBLE ENGINEER—Mr. Philip L. Shepler, Engineer of the steamer Fair Play, was married to Miss Annie Whitlatch, of New England, West Virginia, a few days since. Our best wishes attend the happy pair. May their days be long, and their success all they may desire.

CAPT. LEWIS SHALLCROSS is now recovering ore sunk on the falls last spring by the Iron Mountain. Mr. Hiram Hill, the diver, will do the subaqueous work.—Cincinnati Gazette.

As the Iron Mountain was on her first trip from Pittsburgh to St. Louis, we don't see where the iron ore comes in. The barge she sunk on the falls contained railroad iron.

A NATIONAL Bureau of Maritime Information has been established at No. 83 South street, New York City, under the supervision of the publishers of the Nautical Gazette. To the traveler, to those anxious to find friend or relatives, and to those desiring information of any kind coming under a maritime head, this bureau is of no little importance. Parties wishing it can procure circulars by addressing the bureau.

THE Cincinnati Gazette says: It is estimated that only about 15,000 barrels of Ohio and West Virginia salt are in the hands of wholesale dealers here, and should the river not rise this month, there will not be a barrel in the market by the 1st of November. The average sales for October amount to about 25,000 barrels. Last year at about this time dealers were receiving this salt by rail from Louisville.

WELLS' CARBOLIC TABLETS.

WORTHLESS IMITATIONS are on the market, but the only scientific preparation of Carbolic Acid for Lung diseases is when chemically combined with other well known remedies, as in these TABLETS, and all parties are cautioned against using any other.

IN ALL CASES of irritation of the mucous membrane these TABLETS should be freely used, their cleansing and healing properties are astonishing.

BE WARNED, never neglect a cold, it is easily cured in its incipient state, when it becomes chronic the cure is exceedingly difficult, use Wells' Carbolic Tablets as a specific.

BLOOD PURIFIER

JURUBEBA.

It is not a physic which may give temporary relief to the sufferer for the first few doses, but which, from continued use brings Piles and kindred diseases to aid in weakening the invalid, nor is it a doctored liquor, which, under the popular name of "Bitters" is so extensively palmed off on the public as sovereign remedies, but it is a MOST POWERFUL TONIC AND ALTERATIVE, pronounced so by the leading medical authorities of London and Paris, and has been long used by the regular physicians of other countries with wonderful remedial results.

Dr. Wells's Extract of Jurubeba

Retains all the medicinal virtues peculiar to the plant and must be taken as a permanent curative agent.

IS THERE WANT OF ACTION IN YOUR LIVER AND SPLEEN? Unless relieved at once, the blood becomes impure by deleterious secretions, producing scrofulous or skin diseases, Blotches, Felons, Pustules, Canker, Pimples, &c., &c.

Take JURUBEBA to cleanse, purify and restore the vitiated blood to healthy action.

HAVE YOU A DYSPEPTIC STOMACH? Unless digestion is promptly aided the system is debilitated with loss of vital force, poverty of the Blood, Dropsical Tendency, General Weakness or Lassitude.

Take it to assist Digestion without reaction, it will impart youthful vigor to the weary sufferer.

HAVE YOU WEAKNESS OF THE INTESTINES? You are in danger of Chronic Diarrhœa or the dreadful Inflammation of the Bowels

Take it to allay irritation and ward off tendency to inflammations.

HAVE YOU WEAKNESS OF THE UTERINE OR URINARY ORGANS? You must procure instant relief or you are liable to suffering worse than death.

Take it to strengthen organic weakness or life becomes a burden.

Finally it should be frequently taken to keep the system in perfect health or you are otherwise in great danger of malarial, miasmatic or contagious diseases.

THE VERY LATEST.

THE GEORGIA ELECTION.

How the Greeleyites Carried It.

Republicans Prevented from Voting.

Assailed and Murdered for Asserting Their Rights.

Less Than Half the Republican Vote Polled.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 5, 1872.

The following dispatch reached Judge Edmunds this morning:

ATLANTA, GA., October 5, 1872.

To Hon. James M. Edmunds—No Republicans were admitted as managers or clerks at the election on Wednesday. The officers were all Greeleyites. They refused to open Republican precincts, and freeholders attempting it were dispersed. Democratic votes were received as fast as offered. Republican votes only when no Democratic votes were offering. Republican precincts voted only one per minute, while Democratic precinct were rushed through at the rate of six per minute. Thus thousands of Republicans failed to get in their votes. The exhibition of tax receipts was unlawfully required of Republicans, but not of Democrats. Republican leaders were arrested early, under false charges, in order to intimidate voters. Challenges were made to delay voting, and to intimidate Republicans. Those attempting to assert their rights were assailed, and in some cases murdered. Four were killed at Macon. The Enforcement act was openly defied. Many arrests are being made by United States Marshals. Less than half of the Republican vote was polled.

[Signed] HENRY FARROW, Chairman.

The Chronicle has two letters from Georgia, written on election day, one from Savannah and the other from Macon. At Macon the Democrats took possession of the polls when they opened. The crowding of negroes toward the voting place led to a disturbance, when the whites began to fire promiscuously. An organized party of the chivalry of the place, one hundred strong, then took position fifty yards from the polls, and from that time, which was eight in the morning, no colored men were allowed to vote.

The Savannah letter is from a well known ex-army officer. It makes the following statement: "Over two thousand of our voters, all colored, were kept from voting. Our opponents had an armed force drawn up in front of the voting place, and early in the day one of our workers, I. E. Bryant, deputy collector, was beaten and carried off to jail, and another one arrested, which led to trouble and stopped Republicans from voting. Under the recently enacted laws it is a penitentiary offense to carry arms to an election, so we all went unarmed. Imagine our surprise on finding over one hundred of city roughs, with badges on as special police, all armed with clubs, and taking an active part around the polls. They would club and arrest any one they pleased. I never saw a greater farce to be called an election. We hear by telegram of riots outside the city, and may never be able to know how many of our voters have been run off. They have the ballot boxes, managers, police, militia, special police, sheriff and posse, bailiffs and roughs also with badges on."

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, October 5, 1872.

POLICEMEN ARRESTED.

Chief of Police McWilliams and detective Dovle, of the Jersey City force, were arrested this morning, charged with being implicated in the attempted robbery of the First National Bank of Jersey City. The prisoners were committed for trial at Bayonne, N. J. They were subsequently bailed in $20,000 each.

NITRO GLYCERINE CASUALTIES.

This morning an explosion of nitro glycerine occurred on the Central Railroad, where some laborers had been at work track building. The glycerine was applied for an experimental blast. The quarrymen were ensconced behind boulders, and after the blast Patrick McGlynn, who was not more than forty feet distant, was found horribly mangled, with his right arm torn off by a piece of rock. Another laborer, struck in the bowels, was in a dying condition; another was lifted into the air and dangerously hurt; a residence two hundred feet distant had its roof crushed through by a boulder weighing a thousand pounds.

GONE TO EUROPE.

Rev. N. Woodside, of First Reformed Church, who has just been called to the First Reformed Presbyterian Church, of Pittsburgh, has left for Europe, on a visit to his father, who is ill.

BASE BALL CONVENTION.

The base ball tournament to be played at Union grounds, Williamsburg, for a prize of $4,000, best two games out of three—$1,800 to the first, $1,200 to the second, $1,000 to the third, will be as follows: October 8th, Mutuals and Bostons; 9th, Mutuals and Athletics; 10th, Athletics and Bostons; 11th, Bostons and Mutuals; 12th, Athletics and Mutuals; 14th, Bostons and Athletics.

UNITED STATES AND VIENNA EXPOSITION.

At a meeting held last night at the Union League Club rooms, a committee of twenty nine, including Professor Blake, of New Haven, Jackson S. Schultz and Prof. Joy, of Columbia, was appointed to take measures to have the products of this country suitably represented at the Vienna exposition.

LIBERAL CLUB MEETING.

At the third annual dinner of the Liberal Club, this evening, Horace Greeley presided. Edmund Yates, English novelist, and Dr. Louis Buchner, of Darmstadt, were among the invited guests, and responded happily to toasts of literature and science, respectively.

A BAPTIST CONTROVERSY.

It is rumored that at the meeting of the Baptist association, which is to take place in a few days on Long Island, Revs. J. Hyatt Smith and George F. Pentecost, of Brooklyn, will be put on trial for their radicalism on the subject of open communion. Smith's views have caused a great deal of interest among Baptists.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, October 5, 1872.

CURRENCY CIRCULATION.

In a work now in preparation by the Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, Richardson, on finances, he says, after quoting the law of February 18, 1868, for the reduction of currency: "At this time the amount outstanding was $356,000,000. That is the limit below which the circulation of United States notes cannot be reduced without Congressional enactment. Between that amount and the four hundred millions authorized by law, the issue of a reserve of forty-four millions is left to the discretion of the Secretary, who has never since availed himself of it to any extent whatever, except on two occasions. During September, 1869, about one million and a half of three per cent. demand certificates, which came in suddenly for redemption, were paid out of this reserve, but the amount so withdrawn was within two weeks again restored thereto."

THE CLAIMS COMMISSION.

The United States and British Commission had a long session to-day. They closed the proofs in a large number of claims, and extended the time for taking testimony in others. Several cases were disallowed. The Commission adjourned until October 28th.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 6, 1872.

THE ALABAMA INDEMNITY MONEY.

It is anticipated in official circles that the award made by the Geneva Tribunal will be paid before the expiration of twelve months from the time of its announcement, this being the treaty limit. The money will be paid to the Department of State, and as there is no law concerning the disposal of it, legislation by Congress becomes necessary for that purpose.

GOVERNMENT RELIEF FOR THE MONETARY STRINGENCY.

With a view of easing the money market Acting Secretary Richardson has directed the Assistant Treasurer at New York to buy five millions of bonds and sell five millions of gold on Monday, the 7th instant, subject to the usual conditions of the monthly purchases of bonds and sales of gold.

CITY MATTERS.

LOCAL POLITICS.

Meeting in Temperanceville.

The Republicans of Temperanceville held a rousing meeting on Saturday evening last. The attendance was very large, and great enthusiasm prevailed. The meeting was organized at eight o'clock by the election of the following officers:

Secretaries—Homer McGay, Philip Weaver, Henry Barlow.

After Mr. Luty had concluded his speech, loud calls were made for him to deliver a speech in English, when he responded in an eloquent manner. The meeting adjourned at a late hour amid much enthusiasm.

West Elizabeth Ablaze.

The largest Republican meeting ever held in West Elizabeth, and, in fact, the largest meeting of any kind ever held in this place, occurred on Friday evening last. There were over one thousand five hundred persons present.

The Hartranft Club, of Elizabeth, Capt. J. B. Hamilton; the Tanner Club, Capt. Newtown Phillips, of the same place; the Jefferson Hussars, Capt. Denny O'Neil; the Coal Bluff Club, Capt. John Barclay; and the West Elizabeth Club were in attendance, and with their red caps and capes and torches, made a beautiful appearance. The clubs were accompanied by the West Elizabeth, Jefferson township, and Fifteenth Amendment brass bands.

Mr. John S. Shaffer called the meeting to order and announced the following named gentlemen as officers, who were unanimously elected:

President—T. S. Tower.

Vice Presidents—Isaac Large, W. W. O'Nell, Samuel Chamberlain and Captain J. C. Dougherty.

Secretaries—D. W. McBriar, W. H. Lynch and Amos Sawyer.

A Democratic Fizzle in Hazelwood.

For several days it was announced, with a great flourish of trumpets, that the Democratic-Liberals of the Twenty-third ward would hold a "grand rally" at Hazelwood on Friday evening. After waiting about an hour and a half for an audience, the managers were beginning to despair, as not more than fifty persons were present (most of them being Republicans, attracted by curiosity), when the "audience" arrived in the shape of the Twenty-third ward marching club, reinforced by several other clubs imported from the city. As W. D. Moore, Otto Laedeke, D. D. Bruce, M. Swartzwelder, and other lights, had been announced to speak, the hopes of the visitors were raised to a high pitch, when it was discovered that not only the audience, but the speakers, had failed to appear. The proper thing to be done, under the circumstances, would have been to dismiss the clubs and own themselves beaten. However, this would not do, and Wm. Alexander, Esq., approached the stand and said: "Fellow-citizens, I am very sorry to inform you that the only speaker present is Mr. R. B. Parkinson, who will now address you." Mr. P. then arose and delivered an address in his peculiar (?) style. He could not refrain from passing a well merited compliment on the glorious military services of General Hartranft. The whole meeting occupied exactly half an hour by the watch.

Trouble in the Twelfth Ward.

On Saturday night, while the Twelfth ward club was passing the corner of Seventeenth and Penn streets, it was attacked by a crowd of roughs, led, as it is alleged, by Teddy McCarby. This famous individual is accused of running from the pavement to the head of the Twelfth ward club and seizing hold of the banner and calling on his associates to "come on," and fight the club. The "associates" did come on but they met with a warm reception and were compelled to retreat quite suddenly with well deserved headaches. But one man was arrested—Wm. McCall, who was fined fifty dollars by the Mayor for disorderly conduct. A man named Jack Lindsay struck John Fritz with a slung shot during the melee, injuring him seriously. Had it not been for the presence of Lieut. Hager, who mounted a barrel and made a speech to the club, several drinking houses where the opposition find a refuge would have been cleaned out. Several informations will likely be made to-day and the originators of this riot brought to justice.

Maple Grove Coal Company.

Some time since we noticed the fact that proceedings in bankruptcy had been instituted against the Maple Grove Coal Company, of Venango county, for failure to meet the interest due on coupons attached to bonds issued by the company. On Saturday a new proceeding was commenced against the company by Edgar Holmes, of Rochester, New York, who holds a large number of coupons, upon which overdue interest remains unpaid. The usual orders were made.

THE TORCHES!

Saturday Night's Procession.

The South Side Loyal.

Scenes on the Route---Disgraceful Proceedings of the Opposition ---The Column Frequently Assailed and Insulted.

The procession of Saturday night was one of the great events of the campaign. It was organized for the special benefit of the South Side, and the people of the boroughs turned out in force, and by the extent of their decorations, illumination, &c., proved that the great majority were truly loyal to the great Republican party and determined to support the entire ticket to-morrow. It was after seven o'clock when the delegations from Allegheny were met on Sixth street by the Chief Marshal, Gen. J. B. Sweitzer, his aids, the Grant Huzzars and the members of the Twenty-second ward club mounted, the latter acting as escort to Gen. Sweitzer and staff. The line of procession was then taken up via Market street, Fifth avenue, Smithfield street, and the Monongahela suspension bridge to South Pittsburgh. Here the clubs of the South Side and the neighboring boroughs joined the procession, and the route, as published, was taken up and traversed, with but one or two alterations.

The column moved in the following order:

All along the route there was the most intense excitement. The illuminations, decorations, &c., were extensive, but few of the residences of the Republicans of the South Side being undecorated. Some of the "unwashed" of the opposition considerably annoyed the processionists with insulting remarks, but to the credit of those in line but little attention was paid to the would be rioters. Although the clubs had been instructed by their commanders not to create any unnecessary trouble, the boys found it necessary at several points on the route to protect themselves from direct injury. While the Sixth ward club of this city was passing under the Pan Handle Railroad bridge some scoundrels fired pistols at the members, from the neighborhood of the Pittsburgh and Castle Shannon Railroad depot. One young man, named James Hunter, was struck on the head and knocked senseless. From the nature of the wound Dr. Roberts, who attended the man, is unable to state whether it is the effect of a bullet or a stone. Mr. Hunter will recover. On Bingham street, between Tenth and Eleventh, while the 21st ward club and one of the South Side clubs were passing, a man named Michael McGrady, occupying the second story of a house it is alleged, continued to insult the column by calling the processionists names and shouting for Greeley. No attention was paid to him until a brick alighted on the head of a member of the Ninth ward club. Then there was a rush made for the house, and in a very short time the windows, doors, shutters, furniture, &c., were reduced to atoms, the only articles in the house not injured or broken being a copy of the Bible and a picture of Washington and Lincoln. The breeder of the riot made good his escape or he would undoubtedly have been roughly handled. It so happened that the gentleman occupying the first story of the house, Mr. Asaph Williams, is a Republican, and at the time of the raid was in the procession. The loss to Mr. Williams will be made good by some of the clubs of the South Side. A public house, kept by a man named McFadden, on Carson street, above Twenty-eighth, also came in for a little attention. While the Fourteenth ward club was passing it several stones were thrown from in front of the house and the members at once "went" for it, and in short order reduced the bottles, &c., to atoms.

Near Twenty-sixth and Carson streets, while the Welsh glee club was passing, some scoundrel hurled a stone which struck Prof. John Abel Jones on the back of the head, rendering him senseless. He, too, was conveyed to the office of Dr. Roberts, who dressed the wound. Mr. Jones suffered the loss of considerable blood before the Doctor succeeded in closing the wound. Near the corner of Tenth street Mr. Hugh Duffy, who was standing on the sidewalk, was hit on the mouth with a club, several of his teeth being knocked out.

On Thirteenth street a man fired into a Pittsburgh club. He was pursued, and took refuge in an out-house. His place of concealment discovered, it was but a short time until the house was in ruins and its occupant suffering considerably from the beating he had received. This individual was subsequently identified, arrested and held to bail to answer a charge of disorderly conduct.

At Tenth and Carson streets a man attempted to pull a torch out of the hands of a colored man. The latter resented the outrage, and the assailant was laid out flat as a flounder and furnished with material enough for a month's headache.

Samuel Hazlett, a member of the Fourth ward, Allegheny, club, in passing up Carson street, was struck with a club and had his lip split open and some teeth knocked out.

Many other skirmishes are reported from nearly all points of the route, and some of them resulted very seriously.

About two o'clock yesterday morning the door of the Mechanics Hose Company was broken open, but nothing injured.

On the whole the display was a large one, and very creditable to the clubs taking part therein. As to the disorder that occurred one thing is certain—had there been no provocation there would have been no trouble, and the provocation came from the opposition.

THE COLORED VOTERS.

A Stirring Address—Strong Indorsement of John H. Hare, Esq.

A very large number of colored citizens of the county assembled in the Baptist Hall, on Park Way, Allegheny, Friday evening, for the purpose of indorsing an address which Messrs. Neale and Pulpress had been appointed to prepare at a previous meeting. The address was read and unanimously adopted, after commendatory speeches by Messrs. Terry, Butler, Peterson, Davis, Woodson and others. We are unable to give the address in full, but append a few extracts. The following advice to the colored voters is timely:

Let no feeling of fear, nor of sinful lethargy, nor of threats deter you from depositing your ballots next Tuesday. By everything you hold sacred on earth or in heaven, fail not to cast your votes for all the candidates of the Union Republican party. When you get to the polls, if any one challenges your right to vote, for any cause whatever, do not get excited. Keep cool. Use no harsh or angry words. If you have paid your county taxes within the last two years, show your receipts, and if not paid, have the means with you to pay them at the polls. Be sure to have two persons present who are well known in the ward or election district where you live. They will act as vouchers for you in proving that you have been living in the State one year or more, and that you have been residing in the ward or township the length of time the law requires. "We appeal to you also to be at the polls at half-past six o'clock in the morning." If you wait until a later hour, or put off going until the afternoon, there may be trouble in reciving your ballot, and your vote may be lost.

The address contains the following strong indorsement of John H. Hare, Esq., Republican candidate for Sheriff:

A malignant spirit, born of envy and hate, tried to throw a cloud over the honest name and reputation of John H. Hare, Esq., the Union Republican candidate for High Sheriff. But slander fled before the light of truth. Both charges, viz.: That of refusing to entertain a number of colored men, known as the Georgia Minstrels, and who were engaged in the wretched business of burlesquing and degrading their own race. Also, that of unfriendly treatment to a prominent colored man. The first charge, or lie, rather, fell of its own weight to the ground by Mr. Hare's proving that he was absent from the city at the time the minstrels applied for board and lodging at the hotel, and if he had been present, he had no control over his father's hotel, and could neither have received or refused them. The second charge was alike disproved, and Mr. Owens, against whom this unfriendly treatment is said to have been committed, is a warm admirer of Mr. Hare, and is using his large influence in favor of his election. The members of this committee are prepared to prove that as many or more colored persons have boarded and been hospitably entertained at Mr. Hare's Hotel as any other hotel in Pittsburgh. John H. Hare, Esq., is a man of the people. He has filled several important official positions in Pittsburgh ably and honestly, with no act of dishonor or double dealing clinging to his official record.

MR. W. H. REYNOLDS was riding in a buggy with a friend, on Saturday evening, along Nixon street, Allegheny, when the horse and buggy fell into an open and unguarded sewer which is in course of construction. The occupants of the buggy were thrown out, but fortunately they escaped unhurt, though the horse was so badly injured that he was shot to put an end to his suffering.

A MAN whose name we failed to learn, while walking along the track of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, near Rochester, on Saturday evening last, was struck by the locomotive and run over and one of his legs cut off. He was taken into the Doncaster House, in Rochester, and a physician summoned. He had been engaged in repairing the telegraph wires along the road.

A PAINTER named John Young, while working on a scaffold at a house on the corner of Diamond and Grant streets, on Saturday afternoon, the scaffold fell, precipitating Young to the pavement below. Fortunately he escaped with the fracture of a leg and some bruises. He was removed to his boarding house at the corner of Anderson and Robinson streets, where he is now doing well.

THE Board of Prison Inspectors met on Saturday, when the Quarterly Committee reported in favor of laying new drainage pipes for the radiators, to be placed above ground, with a view to improving the ventilation of the jail. No action was taken on the report further than to receive it. Judge Stowe, Commissioner Stackrath and Mayor Blackmore were appointed a committee for the ensuing quarter.

THE Coroner held an inquest on Saturday evening over the remains of Joseph Bartlet, who was struck by the West Newton accommodation train, when he was thrown on the fly-wheel of the iron mills of Preston, Graff & Co., which is only two or three feet from the track, and instantly killed. The jury rendered a verdict of accidental death, and recommended that a railing be placed between the fly-wheel and the track.

ANOTHER RALLY.

Enthusiastic Meeting in the Sixth Ward, Allegheny—Speeches by Hon. H. Bucher Swoope and Gen. Blakely.

A very large and enthusiastic meeting of Republicans was held on Saturday evening in the Sixth ward, Allegheny. It was feared that the torchlight procession which took place the same evening in this city would materially effect the attendance at the meeting, but the fears proved groundless, as the meeting was fully as large as any yet held in that part of the city. Prof. J. William Pope was present and fairly electrified the crowd with a number of campaign songs. He was repeatedly encored, and sang in the course of the evening about a dozen songs.

The meeting was organized at half-past seven o'clock by the election of the following officers:

President—L. P. Stone.

Vice Presidents—Gideon Webster, Frank R. Lang, P. S. Greaves, Frederick Lyle, H. Trimmer, D. W. Riggs, Henry Warner, Wm. B. Ross, R. T. White, Conrad Mendle, B. Livingston, Col. Wm. F. Dill, George C. Cochran, Capt. Crawford, John C. Harper, W. J. Bartly, J. Ellis Merriman.

Secretaries—Reporters of the press.

The President, after making a few introductory remarks, introduced the Hon. H. Bucher Swoope, who proceeded to speak about an hour in his usual eloquent manner. He was frequently interrupted with applause and at times it continued several minutes. He commenced by saying that he felt the work was done, that the people had made up their minds, that they had decided how to vote, and that decision, carried out on next Tuesday, would be the triumphant election of Gen. Hartranft and the whole Republican ticket by over twenty thousand. He then said that the cry of defection in the Republican party, raised by the opposition, exists more in imagination than in fact, for the mass of the Republicans are still true to their colors. It is true that in this county Marshall has gone over, and Moorhead has gone over, but they only carry themselves; they will carry nobody else.

The speaker now reviewed at length Buckalew's record while in the Senate and his conduct during the war. He then dwelt on the State Democratic Convention held at Reading, and said they adopted a platform almost diametrically opposite to the platform adopted in Cincinnati and Baltimore. They adopted a Copperhead platform, and they put on it Buckalew, and set him before the people as a Liberal Reform candidate. They have also set up for Supreme Judge, Mr. Thompson, who is a good lawyer but a better rebel. He never failed to lend the aid of his influence during the war to the enemies of the country and in the very darkest hours of the rebellion, when a draft had been ordered, Judge Thompson and his Democratic associate pronounced that the draft was unconstitutional. Judge Strong, although a Democrat, pronounced a dissenting opinion. Judge Agnew was soon afterwards elected, when the draft went on.

They charge Grant with nepotism. He has thirteen relatives now in office, but some of them were appointed by Andrew Johnson. This objection comes with a bad grace from the Democratic party. The speaker would not say that Judge Thompson had been "guilty" of nepotism, but the circumstances which have surrounded him would justify the charge, and it would be far worse than the charge made against Grant, because Thompson is a judicial officer, while Grant is simply an executive and ministerial officer. What are the facts? Thompson's brother-in-law was the prothonotary of the Eastern District. Thompson's son was the counsel of one of the greatest corporations in Pennsylvania that had constantly cases pending in the supreme court in which Thompson sits. Thompson's other son was the counsel for another corporation. Their candidate for Auditor General is Mr Hartley. He has not a very brilliant record. All through the war he was a Copperhead and he is a Copperhead yet. When the boys in blue were defeated his face was smiling and happy, but, when they were victorious he was sad and so rowful.

On the other hand stands Hartranft, who, at the beginning of the war, entered the army and never failed to discharge his duty to the satisfaction of his superior officers, and to the admiration of the country. There is also Judge Mercur, a lawyer of fine abilities, and who was a loyal man during the war, and gave all his energies and all his support to the cause of the government. For Auditor General another soldier is offered—Gen. Harrison Allen, who entered the service and fought during the entire war and achieved a most brilliant and glorious record. These are the candidates of the Republican party. They have been villified and abused. They charge Hartranft with being a thief, that he speculated with funds of the Commonwealth. They charge Allen with being a Legislative rooster—taking bribes for his vote. They charge President Grant with everything vile and abusive. This is done only to divert attention from their own record, for they are ashamed of it. The speaker now concluded by dwelling at length on the Yerkes affair and Paine's affidavits.

At the conclusion of Mr. Swoope's speech, General Blakely made a few remarks, after which Prof. Pope sang a number of songs, when the crowd at a late hour dispersed.

The firm do not sell slop-shop work, but such as would do credit to the very best custom establishments. They are now offering a very carefully selected stock of fresh fall goods, to which they invite the attention of purchasers. Call in and judge for yourselves. Everybody should know that the Great One Price Store is at No. 95 Smithfield street, Pittsburgh, and No. 178 Federal street, Allegheny, for such knowledge may save them much money when they come to buy their fall and winter supply of new clothes. All are invited to call and look through the stock, and inquire the prices, whether wishing to purchase or not. The managers are courteous and accomplished gentlemen, who are conspicuous for fair dealing with, and honorable treatment of their patrons. Again we say, give them a call.

Why They Can Do It.

It is a noted fact that for some time past Messrs. Workman & Davis have been selling carriages, buggies, sulkies, jagger and buck wagons very cheap, in fact, cheaper than they can be bought in the East. The reason is that they are thoroughly practical workmen themselves, and employ only skilled workmen in every branch of their business, using only the very best articles in all the work they put up, and only asking and expecting a fair living price—rather selling their work when finished at a small profit to leaving it lay on their hands. They fully understand the motto of a "nimble sixpence being better than a slow shilling." Therefore they sell their work at what is considered a low price by those who understand anything about the value of such vehicles as this firm manufacture. Let all who want any article in their line call at the repository, Nos. 167, 169 and 171 Penn street, Pittsburgh, or at the manufactory on Arch street, Allegheny, where specimens of their work can be seen. They also attend to the repairing of carriages of every description, and all work entrusted to their care will receive prompt attention.

PREMIUM AWARDED TO City Pavement Co. FOR PAVEMENT 1871

THE STOW
Foundation
Pavement,
Mechanics' Institute
Premium,
1871.

MECHANICS' INSTITUTE SAN FRANCISCO

Report of the Committee on Pavements, at the last Exhibition of the Mechanics' Institute, San Francisco, California, where the Stow Foundation Pavement was first introduced, and where it has been in used the past seven years.

"For general practical use and public benefit, we do not hesitate to pronounce the Stow Foundation Pavement, exhibited by the City Paving Company, together with the actual tests of its durability, as presented by the wear and tear in the streets of San Francisco, to be SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS, when taking into consideration the method of laying it, the time it has been laid, the form of its construction, and by an honest comparison with others which have been submitted to the same test. WE AWARD IT THE FIRST PREMIUM."

Signed,
EDWIN A. SHERMAN, } Committee.
JOHN V. HUNTER, }

Stow Foundation Pavement!

The only Pavement that can be taken up and relaid without injury to the foundation. All Engineers, Builders, Gas and Water Companies and Plumbers, indorse this Pavement.

THE GREAT MERIT OF THE STOW PAVEMENT IS IN ITS SUPERIOR FOUNDATION,
Over all others, either of Wood or Stone, now in use.

It is a well known principle, in fact an AXIOM in Engineering, that where sand can be confined it is the best foundation that can be obtained. This principle—the confinement of sand—is perfectly and thoroughly secured in this pavement by the Wedges which are driven between and below the blocks into the sand, [see cut,] thus securely confining it and rendering lateral displacement, or compression by vertical pressure, totally impossible.

It is also incontrovertible, that where wood is kept uniformly wet, it will not decay. This pavement being laid directly on a sub-stratum of sand, and the surface made air and water-tight, the blocks receive and retain the moisture from beneath by capillary attraction and are uniformly wet, even in the driest weather; thus decay or dry rot cannot take place.

It is, when finished, a perfectly sectional pavement, each block sustaining the weight required, independent of the other.

It is so constructed that the different pieces do not become loose by use; but the longer the pavement is used the more substantial it becomes.

The gravel does not become loose, as in other pavements but will remain firm as long as the pavement will last.

A portion can be taken up and replaced without injury to the pavement. In taking it up for laying water or gas pipes, or for constructing sewers, there is no necessity of removing any more than what is required for the pipe or sewer, which can be replaced in as firm and substantial manner as the original pavement, at one-fourth the expense of any other wood pavement.

In San Francisco, where the pavement has been in use more than six years, at least nineteen-twentieths of all pavements put down in that city for the past four years have been of the "Stow Foundation," the property owners selecting it in preference to any other pavement. Address,
